Penn State Wireless Access – Get Connected

Setup Instructions for Windows 8
1. From the home screen, click Settings
2. Select Network
3. Open Network Connections
4. Select psu
5. Click Connect
6. When prompted, enter Access Account userid (xyz1234) and password
7. If you get the message "Windows cannot verify the server's identity" with the option to Connect or Disconnect, choose Connect.

You're now connected to Penn State Wireless 2.0. You can now open a web browser and use the Penn State Wireless Service.

Instructions for Windows 7 using SecureW2 - Setup
1. Choose psuwirelesssetup from the available wireless networks
2. Download the pertinent file from http://bit.ly/1Del7x
3. Run the Penn State Wireless V2 installer
4. Click Yes when prompted by User Account Control
5. Click Setup
6. Click OK to install in English, or select a language and click OK
7. Click Next
8. Read the SecureW2 License Agreement and click "I Agree"
9. Select EAP-TTLS and click Install
10. You must reboot in order to connect to Penn State Wireless 2.0. Leave "Reboot now" selected and click Finish. Your machine will reboot

Instructions for Windows 7 using SecureW2 - Connection
1. If your machines see the psu wireless network, the following balloon will appear in the bottom right of your screen. Click on the balloon.

OR

1. To connect to the psu wireless network manually, right click on the Wireless Icon in the system tray and click "Connect to a Network."
2. Select psu from the network list and click Connect.

3. You will be notified that additional log on information is required. Click "Enter/select additional log on information:"

4. The SecureW2 Logon Dialog Window will appear. Enter your Penn State Access Account User-ID and Password. Domain must be left blank. Click OK

You're now connected to Penn State Wireless 2.0. You can now open a web browser and use the Penn State Wireless Service.

Setup Mac OSX 7 Lion/8 Mountain Lion
1. Choose psuwirelesssetup from the available wireless networks
2. Download the pertinent file from http://bit.ly/1Del7x
3. Double-Click the downloaded file
4. Click Continue
5. Click Continue
6. Enter your Access Account User-ID and password
7. Click Install
8. Enter your machine’s local user password when prompted. The profile is now installed. Wireless for PSU is configured.
9. To access the wireless, please connect to the psu network.

You're now connected to Penn State Wireless 2.0. You can now open a web browser and use the Penn State Wireless Service.